INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CONFERENCE 2025

Theme: Connecting Dots with Women Business Networks for Uniting Women's Economic Development and Inclusion

Since its inception in 2021, the International Women's Development Conference (IWDC) has emerged as a transformative force for global gender equity and women's empowerment. Founded through the collaborative efforts of the Community Development Foundation (CDF) and the Global Women's Development Network (GWDN), IWDC has grown from an ambitious initiative spanning 15 countries to a powerful network connecting over 150 nations by 2025.

IWDC's Transformative Journey: 2021-2025

- 2021: Building a Foundation for Change
 - IWDC launched with participation from 15 countries, laying the groundwork for global collaboration on women's rights and economic development.
- 2022: Strengthening Connections
 - Partnerships with local organizations and leaders created inclusive and impactful initiatives rooted in grassroots realities.
- 2023: Accelerating Momentum
 - Expansion to 75+ nations, focusing on health, education, leadership, and entrepreneurship, amplified the coalition's impact through global events and programs.
- 2024: Establishing a Global Movement
 - Presence in 150+ countries, integrating women's rights into global policy and economic agendas while uniting stakeholders for collaborative progress.
- 2025: Connecting Dots, Building Bridges
 - Engaged with 300+ influential leaders, hosted 60-70 hours of virtual engagements annually, and created global networks connecting women entrepreneurs, leaders, and changemakers.

PRESS RELEASE

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CONFERENCE 2025

Theme: Connecting Dots with Women Business Networks for Uniting Women's Economic Development and Inclusion

A Vision for Global Unity in 2025 and Beyond

With a focus on 15+ development sectors, the IWDC-25 Conference will showcase the achievements of women in community services, health, peace, business, agriculture, technology, and more. This year's efforts aim to:

1. Unite Women's Economic Development and Inclusion

- Establishing global business networks to share resources, mentorship, and market opportunities.
- Promoting sustainable economic growth driven by women entrepreneurs and leaders.

2. Advocate for Women's and Girls' Rights

- Addressing critical issues such as access to education, fair wages, and leadership roles.
- Driving gender-equity policies in global economic agendas.

Building Bridges for the Future: A Vision for 2030

As the IWDC moves forward, its goals include:

- Representation in 150+ countries by 2030.
- Addressing emerging challenges like climate resilience, digital inclusion, and gender-based violence.
- Empowering marginalized groups and youth, nurturing the next generation of women leaders.
- Fostering innovation through platforms for entrepreneurship and sustainable development.

Join the Movement

The IWDC-25 Global Conference is an opportunity to connect, collaborate, and create lasting change. By empowering women, uniting business networks, and building global bridges, the IWDC is shaping a future defined by equity, opportunity, and resilience for women everywhere.

Conference Details:

- Dates: March 4th-8th, 2025
